FEAR A LONG CONTEST OVER CITY BONDS.

MAKE THE AWARD AT ONCE.

Officials at the City Hall are beginning to fear that there will be a long contest in the courts over the award of the city's bonds to the amount of 13,000,000, for which bids were received last oration Counsel as to the legality of some of the bids, and has been ordered to show cause in the Supreme Court why he should not be restrained from awarding the bonds to the highest syndicate ontest over the bonds.

A NEW CUSTOMS REGULATION. Goods illegally marked, either as to amount or value, or otherwise than required by the customs laws, now come under a new rule, just issued by the Treasury Department. Heretofore such goods have been referred to the law division of the Custom House. The instructions received by Collector

Bidwell yesterday read as follows:

In accordance with the recommendation of Agent
Cummings, you should instruct the Appraiser, whenever illegally marked goods are found in any examination package, to at once request that the balance of the importation be ordered into public store, either intact or in the best condition possible. The importer may there mark his goods in the manner required by law, in the presence of the manner required by law, in the presence of the esentative of the Appraiser, and the importer I be required to deposit with you in each ince a sum equal to the compensation of the reputative of the Appraiser who has supervision uch marking for the time during which he is employed. No appraisement of such importase should be made until they shall have been serly marked.
